Objectives

Awareness of Government Schemes: To educate students about various state government initiatives, such as the Student Credit Card scheme, Swami Vivekananda Merit-cum-Means Scholarship, Aikyashree, and Pre- and Post-Matric Scholarships, ensuring students can access these benefits.

• Facilitation of Financial Support: To organize camps and help desks to assist students in applying for the Student Credit Card scheme and other scholarships, making higher education more accessible.

• Promotion of Holistic Development: To engage students in cultural and educational activities, including seminars, workshops, health check-up camps, and psychological counseling, fostering their overall well-being.

• Encouragement of Cultural Participation: To conduct events like singing, recitation, creative writing, quiz, debate, and poster-making competitions to nurture creativity and cultural involvement.

• Enhancement of Institutional Environment: To ensure cleaning and sanitation of colleges and universities before the week (by December 30, as per 2023 guidelines), creating a conducive environment for learning and activities.

• Stakeholder Engagement: To involve district authorities, such as District Magistrates and education officers, to lead and coordinate the week's activities, ensuring effective implementation across institutions.

These objectives aim to align with the state's vision of equitable access to quality education and cultural development, as outlined by the Higher Education Department.

Overall Impression

All staffs heart fully cooperated to successfully complete this programme along with Principal, Nodal officer, Joint Nodal Officer, IQAC. Students' active participation was very vibrant in cultural activities and in overall programme. Students do very patiently take part in this programme for one week. Through Parents meets, a lot of information shared and clarified their perceptions.

In spite of this strength of the programme, students' attendance was almost average in number. It has been noticed that girl students' participation and attendance in this programme was more than the boys in numbers. And by this programme, Govt. of West Bengal provided an opportunity for the students to understand their importance in not only college but also in society. But it is not possible to convey all about the significance of such a valuable and inspiring initiative of Govt. of West Bengal.

Outcome

The Students' Week (02.01.2024 to 08.01.2024) was successfully organized under the directives of the Government of West Bengal. A series of events—including awareness camps on scholarships, seminars on ethics and environment, cultural programs, a parent-teacher meeting, career counseling, and a workshop on cybercrime—engaged students holistically. The initiative fostered awareness about government schemes, encouraged student participation in extracurricular, and enhanced their socio-cultural and academic understanding. The week concluded with tree plantation and prize distribution, reflecting a blend of environmental responsibility and celebration of talent.

Feedback

Students' Feedback

- Students expressed satisfaction with the informative sessions, especially the scholarship awareness, career counseling, and cybercrime workshop.
- Many appreciated the cultural competitions as a platform to showcase their talents.
- Girls' participation was notably higher, indicating a positive response among female students.

Faculty Members' Feedback

- Teachers acknowledged the students' enthusiasm and discipline throughout the week.
- They appreciated the government's initiative for fostering moral, cultural, and academic growth.
- Faculty emphasized the need for even broader participation and deeper engagement in future sessions.

Parents' Feedback

- Parents, during the parent-teacher meeting, shared constructive suggestions on enhancing academic standards and student-teacher relationships.
- They showed appreciation for the college's transparency and involvement of families in the education process.

- Several parents promised future involvement and encouraged the continuation of such events.

Conclusion

The Students' Week 2024 at Nur Mohammad Smriti Mahavidyalaya served as a meaningful and multifaceted learning experience. It not only raised awareness about key educational schemes and career opportunities but also promoted ethical values, creativity, and civic consciousness among students. While attendance was average, the engagement level was high, particularly among female students. This initiative reflected the college's commitment to holistic student development and successfully aligned with the vision of the Higher Education Department, Government of West Bengal. Future editions could aim for wider outreach and deeper impact.
