Program outcomes (POs) are specific statements that describe what students are expected to know and be able to do by the time they complete a program. These outcomes are often aligned with the goals and objectives of the educational program and reflect the knowledge, skills, and attitudes that students should acquire. POs assess the program's effectiveness in achieving its academic goals.

Programme Outcomes for Bachelor of Arts (Honours)

Bachelor of Arts (BA) is offered in Bengali, English, History, Education, Sociology, Philosophy, and Arabic. The Bachelor of Arts (Honours) degree is typically more specialized and focused than a General BA programme, often requiring higher academic achievement and deeper engagement with the chosen discipline. The program outcomes for a BA (Honours) degree are designed to reflect this increased depth and specialization. Here are some typical program outcomes for a Bachelor of Arts (Honours) degree:

1. Critical Thinking

- Develop the ability to critically analyze humanities and social sciences texts, theories, and concepts.

2. Effective Communication

- Enhance written and verbal communication proficiency, fostering articulate expression of ideas and arguments.

3. Research Skills

- Gain proficiency in qualitative and quantitative research methodologies relevant to arts disciplines.

4. Interdisciplinary Perspective

- Understand and integrate knowledge across various disciplines within arts and humanities.

5. Ethical and Social Awareness

- Promote awareness of ethical, cultural, and social issues to foster responsible citizenship.

6. Cultural Competence

- Appreciate the diversity of cultural expressions and their impact on global and local contexts.

7. Problem-Solving Skills

- Develop innovative solutions to address challenges in academic and professional contexts.

8. Career Readiness

- Equip students with skills for employment in education, media, public service, and other sectors, or for pursuing higher studies.

9. Lifelong Learning

- Foster a spirit of inquiry and a commitment to continuous personal and professional development.

These programme outcomes are intended to prepare graduates for advanced study or professional careers by equipping them with specialized knowledge, advanced research skills, and a broad range of transferable competencies. They emphasize intellectual growth, ethical responsibility, cultural sensitivity, and practical application of knowledge, aiming to produce well-rounded and highly capable graduates.
